PETITIONING THE COURT

To issue a warrant
 To issue a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number Nature of Noncompliance

1

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.'

On January 3, 2006, Khalid Davis was arrested by the Newark, New Jersey Police Department and charged with numerous drug-related offenses, including possession of a weapon and ammunition.

2

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month.'

Davis has failed to submit Monthly Supervision Reports for the months of September, October, November, and December 2005.

The offender has violated the supervision condition which states 'You shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons.'

A standard and special condition of Supervised Release requires Davis's participation in a remedial education and/or vocational training program as directed by the Probation Office. Despite substantial efforts, Davis has failed to secure gainful employment or actively participate in a schooling or vocational training.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Respectfully submitted,

Dear Judge Bissell-Designate:

On May 24, 2001, Khalid Davis was sentenced to 72 months imprisonment, to be followed by a three-year term of supervised release for the offense of Possession of Cocaine with Intent to Distribute. The offender was also ordered to pay a $100 special assessment, and abide by the following special conditions: drug treatment and/or urinalysis, mental health evaluation and/or treatment, and remedial education and/or vocational training. Davis has been supervised by this office since his release from custody on March 25, 2005. At this time, we allege that Davis has violated the terms of his supervised release. We respectfully request that a warrant be issued for the offender which will be used as a detainer. Davis is currently in custody at the Essex County Jail.

The enclosed Probation Form 12C delineates the violation charges. It is recommended that Your Honor issue a warrant for Davis. If the Court agrees with our recommendation, please sign the Form 12C and we will initiate the violation process. We will make ourselves available should the Court wish to discuss this matter.
